

Technology and people in future working life

Seminar for HANAKO- and Well-tech networks

Time: 8. November 2017 8:30 -16.00

Place: TAMK, auditorium D 104, Kuntokatu 3

Participants: HANAKO and Well-tech network, teachers, students and professionals in different fields with interest in welfare technology

Registration: 2.10.-25.10 <https://urly.fi/OI9>

Program

- 8:30 - 8:45 Welcome to the seminar,
Ms. Pirkko Achrén, Director of Services in Tampere Vocational College
- 8:45 - 9:15 Work in international networks– the role of international projects in developing education nationally, Ms. Hanna Autere, Counsellor of Education, Finnish Board of Education
- 9:15 - 9:45 Digitalisation, robotisation and work in the future – how is work changing, what are the skills needed in the future, Case SmartTampere,
Mr. Tero Blomqvist, Smart Tampere Program Director, City of Tampere
- 9.45 -10:15 Ethics and a person's well-being when developing and implementing welfare technology, Ms. Jaana Leikas, Principal Scientist at VTT Technical Research Centre of Finland
- 10:15 - 10:45 Break
- 10:45 - 11:15 Technology as an aid in customer service in Japan,
Ms. Kayoko Fujimoto, Director of Ryusei Fukushima Group
- 11.15 - 11:40 Welfare technology teaching in Deltion College, Netherlands, thoughts about international cooperation and cooperation across different fields of education, Ms. Jolande van Til,
- 11:40 -12:00 Developments in care and technology, Summa college, Netherlands
- 12:00 - 12:30 Welfare technology training in Tampere University of Applied Sciences, Mr. Tony Torp, Senior Lecturer at Tampere University of Applied Sciences
- 12.30 -13.30 Lunch Campus Ravita
- 13:30 - 14:00 eHealth system and health start-ups in Estonia - how to integrate tech into healthcare studies, Mr. Richard Jalakas, Development Specialist in Tartu Health Care College
- 14:00 - 14:30 Games for Health – wellbeing and health by playing games,
Ms. Tiina Arpola, RDI Advisor at Savonia University of Applied Sciences
- 14:30 – 14:45 Break
- 14:45 – 15:30 Cases of doing and learning together
- PnP Buddies - cooperation between home care provider and education provider in implementation and use of welfare technology, Ms. Ella Suojalehto, Manager of Elderly Care in City of Tampere

- Peer tutoring and cross-sectoral cooperation in welfare technology teaching, Ms. Teija Yli-Hollo and Mr. Timö Östman, Lecturers at Turku Vocational Institute
- Shared learning in co-operation with companies - case

15:30 - 16:00 Summing up the day, Ms. Sirje Hassinen, Project Manager at OMNIA, the Joint Authority of Education in Espoo Region